

DELF/DALF

FRENCH as a FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Preparation Courses for the DELF-Diplomas

The Diplôme d'études en langue française (Diploma in French Language Studies, or DELF) and the Diplôme approfondi d'études en langue française (Diploma in Advanced French Language Studies, or DALF) are diplomas awarded by the French Ministry of Education to prove the French language skills of non-French candidates. The diplomas reflect your level of ability in the four language skills: listening, reading, speaking and writing.

FOF Aarhus' DELF programme includes preparation courses for the following exam levels: DELF A2, DELF B1 and DELF B2.

DELF A2

DELF A2 attests the linguistic competence of a basic user, that is, one who can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring the most common polite phrases and exchanges of information.

DELF B1

At this level, you gradually become an independent user of the French language. You can understand and maintain a discussion, give your opinion using a simple and coherent language and deal with situations likely to arise in daily life.

DELF B2

DELF B2 recognizes the linguistic competency of an intermediary user. A DELF B2 Diploma will allow entrance into the French higher educational system.
